aics2018@scss.tcd.ie

The Irish Conference on Artificial Intelligence and Cognitive Science (AICS) is the premier forum in Ireland for presenting new research in artificial intelligence (AI) and cognitive science (CS). A sponsorship of AICS provides the opportunity to present your company and products to Ireland's leading researchers, lecturers, and practitioners in AI and CS. In addition, AICS has a special track for distinguished Bachelor and Master students to present their dissertation projects. Consequently, a sponsorship gives you the opportunity to potentially recruit these students as new employees. There are four sponsorship options: Bronze (350€), Silver (750€), Gold (1,500€), and Platinum (3,000€).

Logo on Website and in Documents

Your logo, name, and URL will be displayed on the AICS homepage <http://aics2018.scss.tcd.ie>. Whenever possible, your name and/or logo will also be mentioned / placed in other documents such as the programme and proceedings, which will be permanently archived on <http://ceur-ws.org>. Logos of Bronze sponsors may be displayed at smaller size than the other logos.

Mention During Welcome Presentation

During the opening presentation, a slide will be shown with all sponsors' logos, and all sponsors will be acknowledged by name.

Conference Tickets

Tickets to the conference and the conference dinner, each worth 150€.

Hand-Out Material

All hand-out materials (flyer, give-aways...) must be provided by your company, at least one week before the conference. As a platinum sponsor, you may hand-out your own bag to conference participants with as many flyers and other material as you wish.

Logo on Official Slides

Your logo will be shown in the footer of all official conference slides, i.e. the slides for the opening and closing presentation.

Branded Session Name

Depending on your sponsorship type, one or two of the approximately six sessions will be named after your company. This name will be used on the conference website <http://aics2018.scss.tcd.ie/programme.html> and the printed programme.

Banner Stand

Gold sponsors may display one banner stand near to the entrance, or near to the registration desk. Platinum sponsors may display one banner stand on or near the stage, and hence will be visible during all presentations. Banner stand must be provided by your company and must not exceed 120cm x 220cm.

Showcase Presentation
